About the Southern Early Music Forum.

SEMF is a network of musicians organising playing and singing days and tutored workshops for singers and instrumentalists in Southern England. Members receive a quarterly newsletter, a membership directory and discounts for SEMF events. Membership is an inexpensive way to connect with other musicians - amateur and professional - with an interest in playing, singing, studying or researching early music. For more information please see our website (www.semf.org.uk).

At Challock, go down Church Lane and take the first left (just past the Chequers Pub) into Blind Lane; the Memorial Hall is on the right. There is plenty of car-parking space at the Hall.

Applications: Please return the application form and fee to arrive not later than 3 November 2012.

No refunds for cancellations after 3 November 2012.

Please advise of any changes to your booking as soon as possible so that it doesn't impact on other attendees. We try to keep event costs to a minimum, this means we cannot refund fees for cancellations with less than one week's notice.

Both Andrea Gabrieli (c.1532-1585) and his nephew Giovanni Gabrieli (c.1554-1612) wrote music that ranges from the hauntingly poignant and intimate moments of the crucifixion to the colourful splendour of grandiose ceremonies at St Mark's Venice. We will savour the power and beauty of their music which soon became the wonder of Europe and drew composers from far and wide who wanted to savour the St Mark's experience first-hand.

Tutor. Bryan Gipps has had many years experience conducting choirs and orchestras and has also spent several decades teaching in public schools. His musicianship, enthusiasm, energy and cheery good humour are infectious and we are sure to have a lively and wonderfully musical day.
