A Day of Early Musick for Voices and Instruments.

At Pembury Baptist Church

Romford Road, Pembury, TUNBRIDGE WELLS, Kent TN2 4HT

On Saturday 26th September 2009

10.00am – 5.00 pm

Organised by Stephanie and John Chambers

Musick will be selected/arranged to suit the voices and instruments offered after receiving all the applications.

Please enter all instruments/voices with which you are willing and able to contribute to the ensemble on the application below. NB Because it takes considerable time to prepare the musick to ensure a satisfactory programme for all, late applications cannot be accepted for this event.

Coffee will be served from 10 am to allow a prompt start at 10.30.

It is suggested that we hold a Bring and Share Lunch; if you would like to participate, please bring a plate of something to share; perhaps those with names A to O savouries and P to Z something sweet. On previous occasions this has produced a delectable spread enjoyed by all.

Tea coffee etc will be provided.

Travelling Directions for Pembury Baptist Church (also known locally as Pembury Free Church):

- Travelling from Tunbridge Wells proceed on the A264 to Pembury village and turn left towards Maidstone at the village green and continue for about half a mile ignoring three residential roads to the right and turn right into Romford Road; the church is situated immediately on your left.
- Travelling South on the A21 turn left off the roundabout signposted Pembury Hospital; continue to the cross roads (traffic lights) and straight over and on to Pembury village: turn left towards Maidstone at the village green and continue for about half a mile ignoring three residential roads to the right and turn right into Romford Road; the church is situated immediately on your left.
- If approaching from Maidstone, take the A228 (via East Peckham and Beltring) follow the Tunbridge Wells and Pembury signs; shortly after reaching the top of Colts Hill turn sharp left to Pembury village and in just under half a mile you will come to complex junction on your left; ignore this, slow down and continue for about 100 yards and turn left into Romford Road; the church is immediately on your left. Note that the turn into Romford Road is concealed by the bend in the road.

If you wish to attend please return the application form, and cheque payable to SEMF, to arrive not later than: 13th September 2008 to:-
