This year the SEMF May playing day moves to Dorking. During the course of the day we will be forming an interesting variety of small early music ensembles - directed from within the groups - suited to both singers and instrumentalists. The actual choice of music will depend on those present, and the day will end with a larger scale piece. Non-members are very welcome - if you don't have an early instrument (e.g. a recorder) the day is also suited to modern strings, some woodwind and singers. Most playing/singing is one-to-a-part.

Schedule

10.30	Arrive for tea and coffee
11.00	Ensemble session 1
12.00	SEMF AGM and Q&A session Agenda is published in the March newsletter.
12.30	Lunch
13.15	Ensemble session 2
14.15	Ensemble session 3
15.15	Break
15.30	Larger-scale ensemble
16.20	Finish

Lunch

You are recommended to bring a packed lunch. There is a small pub nearby, otherwise Dorking High Street is a short drive away, but will be busy on a Saturday. Tea and coffee will be provided.

About the Southern Early Music Forum

SEMF is a network of musicians organising playing and singing days and tutored workshops for singers and instrumentalists in Southern England. Members receive a quarterly newsletter, a membership directory and discounts for SEMF events. Membership is an inexpensive way to connect with other musicians - amateur and professional - with an interest in playing, singing, studying or researching early music. For more information please see our website.

APPLICATION FORM - Please return this form with a cheque made payable to 'Southern Early Music Forum' to Stephen Penny, 2 Ruspers, Burgess Hill, West Sussex RH15 0EB by Wednesday 5th May 2010.
